AN IMAGINAL JOURNEY
Exploration and Discovery

Come join us as we explore the realms of the imagination that lift the veil between the conscious and the unconscious through dreams, active imagination, play, images and more… all within a supportive, welcoming community of mental health professionals and others actively seeking personal awareness, exploration, and growth.

Visit jungcentersouthflorida.org for expanded event descriptions plus details on CEU, payment and discounts, and directions to the Riverside Hotel, the Sunshine Cathedral and the Duncan Conference Center.

STUCK BY LIGHTNING:
THE EFFECT OF ELAIDE’S STORY ON CHILDREN YOUTH & YOUTHFUL
Dania Cyspy, Jungian Analyst

Scott Fauster, Professor of Literature and Film

A part-time event. It is the morning workshop we will explore what effect aging has on the audience/ director. While a director’s work evolves and often becomes compared with the earlier works, with age a director no longer has to keep up with moods and may feel free to break new ground. We will view films clips to illustrate this, focusing on films, including: Citizen Kane, Schindler’s List, and The Godfather.

MARCH 20
Saturday 10:30am – 4:30pm;
Registration 9:30am
Duncan Center, Deerfield Beach
Workshop $75 (includes lunch for CEUs) $50 ($8 for 3 CEUs); $55 late registration*+

ACTIVE IMAGINATION:
PATHWAY TO WHoleness

Linda van Dyk, Jungian Analyst

The ego, the outer physical reality is not enough to experience the fullness of life. Thefullness of life is whatunderstand our potential and mission in life, each of us must find a way to combine the conscious and unconscious parts of our psyche—to wake up to the fullness of our lives. Jungian Dream Interpretation is an important and effective way to help people reach this goal, to bring their conscious and unconscious parts of themselves into balance.

HITCHCOCK’S NOTORIOUS:
AN EXPLORATION OF ANIMA & ANIMUS

Jungian Analysts

In Notorious, Alfred Hitchcock weaves romance and suspense into a dark fairy tale of passion, domination, and the battle between conscious and unconscious. In this workshop, we will look at how to use Active Imagination in its various forms to focus and to become aware of the unconscious reality within each of us so that our mind and heart may become conscious and to attended to in the self.

Jungian Analysts

The intent of the dream seminar is to offer an opportunity to explore the myths, mysteries, and meaning of dreams, most often involving symbols and archetypal figures and landscapes. A call for dreams will be made at the beginning of each session, and the group will explore how the dreams are relevant to the participants.

MYRNA LITTLE,
Ph.D., is a clinical psychologist in private practice in Dallas, a member of the Dallas Group Analytic Practice, and a Jungian Psychoanalyst. Currently she is assistant professor at Southwestern Medical School, Department of Psychiatry, and an Assistant Editor of the Journal of Analytical Psychology. Myrna Little is a graduate of the C.G. Jung Institute of San Francisco and has been a member of the training faculty of the Center for Depth Psychology, a C.G. Jung Training Institute.

This is the final workshop in the series of workshops in the spring of 2014, and it is an opportunity to work with our dreams, and to explore how they may be relevant to our lives on the conscious level.
